Ministry Partners: Habitat for Humanity and Powerhouse Ministries

Habitat for Humanity

Shfh.org

Sacramento Habitat for Humanity, an ecumenical housing ministry based on Christian principles founded in 1985, is a local affiliate of Habitat for Humanity International whose mission is to eliminate poverty housing worldwide and to make decent shelter a matter of conscience.

Powerhouse Ministries

Phmfolsom.org

Powerhouse Ministries became an official non profit organization in 1992. They offer men's, women's support groups, teen and children's ministry programs, a homeless shelter, year round transitional shelter, a Drop-in Center, recreational events, holiday programs, assistance with alternative sentencing and personalized individual ministry to meet the many needs of their clients. They continue to serve the families of prisoners and other low income families living in high-risk neighbourhoods by addressing the immediate physical needs of daily life and offering the emotional and spiritual sustenance that allows recovery from tragedy and movement forward with a hope in the future.

Projects will include but will not be limited to:

- Construction
- Youth/Children service and projects
- Working with Hurt and Abused women
- Assisting those in intensive need

There are only 50 spaces available.

First Informational Meeting: Sunday, February 27th 1 pm
Lunch AND Childcare will be provided.

You can sign up for this trip at the Welcome Center, the Church office or during Student Ministry Fellowship Groups.
