

MAIN SESSION SPEAKER

LES CHRISTIE

Chair of Youth Ministry, William Jessup University

Les has been in youth ministry for 40 years, serving at Eastside Christian Church in Fullerton, CA for 22 years. He has spoken in 48 states, 11 foreign countries, and at more than twenty Christian colleges, seminaries and universities. Les has lead seminars at the Youth Specialties National Youth Workers Convention every year since 1980. He has been a member of Youth Specialties Resource Seminar (CORE) for 10 years and is a team member for "Understanding Your Teenager" leading parenting seminars all over the country.

ELECTIVE CLASSES

Veteran Youth Pastors will share their best material on a variety of topics

You and your students can attend two elective sessions which will provide practical tools to take back to your home church.

Topics Include:

- Finding and developing your gifts and talents
- How to start a student worship band
- Skills for leading/teaching a Bible study
- Starting and maximizing a Christian club on your school campus
- How to get and keep a regular quiet time with God
- Dating without regrets & choosing the right marriage partner
- Starting and growing student-led small groups

And more!

Why should I bring my high school students?

- To challenge and equip your high school students to use their gifts to help build the church!
- To learn from dozens of other youth pastors, high school students and adult volunteers.
- There will be excellent teaching, student led worship, and lots of leadership training information for you, your students and adult volunteers.
